PILOT PROJECT

E-comm export: Shiprocket, cargo firm to run hubs

MUKESH JAGOTA
New Delhi, November 14

LOGISTICS ENABLER FOR e-commerce Shiprocket and air cargo handling company Cargo Service Centre (CSC) have been selected by the government to run pilots on setting up e-commerce export hubs in the country, a senior official said on Thursday.

The hubs will be set up in and around Delhi airport and will be rolled out in February next year, director general of foreign trade Santosh Kumar Sarangi told reporters. While Shiprocket is headquartered in Gurugram, CSC is based in Mumbai.

"The hub will have facilities for expedited customs and security clearance in house. Provision for quality and certifying agency will happen with the hub. It will also have a very easy reimport policy," he added. Reimport policy will enable the return of e-commerce consignments and rejects without payment of import duty.

Based on the feedback received on running of these pilots, the government will come out with detailed guidelines for setting up more such hubs across the country. The guidelines may require policy or regulatory tweaks in different departments, Bureau of Civil Aviation Security (BACS) and DGFT.

"Our expectation is that the successful rollout of the pilot and subsequent scaling up will have a large number of ECEH (e-commerce export hubs) operating in different parts of the country," Sarangi said.

Heside e-commerce exports have the potential to grow to $100 billion-plus by 2030 and then further to $200-250 billion. Global e-commerce exports are expected to touch $2 trillion in 2030 from $800 billion now. India's exports through this medium is only about $5 billion as compared to China's $250 billion annually. China, which is a leader in e-commerce exports, is also a pioneer in export hubs for e-commerce. China's exports through this route were 6.4% of its total merchandise exports in 2023, while for India this figure stood at $1.14%. "This (ECEH) will be a key element in furthering our exports," Sarangi said.
